Product Marketing

Every day we strive to give our best performance, but to do this we need the right fuel. I know how important this is when preparing to tackle each championship season. With this mission in mind, I worked with Monster to make this limited edition can. Infused with the refreshing taste of stone fruits, this energy drink is packed with all the vegan ingredients needed to turbo charge your drive. Wrapped in a bespoke design I co-created with Mad Dog Jones, this delicious formula will have you ready for anything.
